October–November Opportunities 2026

All 39 names on your lists, in your order: 3-month price charts, price moves, earnings, guidance, capex, partnerships, catalysts and the market events that can move each one. Updated for Monday Nov 2, 2026: your Oct 30 lists (INTC and AMZN now in the Top 5; GOOGL, HPE, FTNT and NOW added; LRCX removed), this week's results (SK hynix, Teradyne, Corning, Robinhood, Vertiv, KLA, Alphabet, Fortinet, ServiceNow, Amazon, Intel, Coinbase), the Fed's hold and Friday's tech selloff. Prices are official Nasdaq closes through Friday Oct 30. Times are Pacific.

Charts show 3 months of daily closes, which shows each stock's trend and how far it has pulled back; the shaded band is the last month. Decision support, not advice. News facts come from CNBC, Bloomberg, Fox Business, WSJ, Seeking Alpha and Al Jazeera, plus company releases and filings. Consensus EPS is from Nasdaq. Earnings dates marked "est." are not confirmed by the company.

Where to buy options: IV check

Next buy days: Mon Nov 2, Tue Nov 3, Wed Nov 4, Thu Nov 5. Only names your rules allow are listed, best value first. Cheap = options cost less than the stock has actually been moving (IV below 20-day movement): the better time to buy. Normal = fair. Expensive = wait. The expiry shown is the allowed one nearest 30 days (7–60 DTE and ending before the next report); take profit at +25% to +100% (Rule 1).

The next 5 sessions: when you can trade

Mon Nov 2	Clear for trading. Aehr and Apple report after the close, so no new AEHR options.
Tue Nov 3	Clear for trading, but it's Election Day. DigitalOcean reports before the open (no new DOCN options); AMD, Arista, Astera Labs and Super Micro after the close.
Wed Nov 4	Clear for trading. Circle reports before the open; Coherent, Arm and Qualcomm after the close (no new options on those four).
Thu Nov 5	Clear for trading. Akamai, IonQ, Applied Optoelectronics and IREN report (no new options on those four).
Fri Nov 6	October jobs report at 5:30 AM PT and a Friday, so no new trades (Rules 2 and 3). Vistra reports.

Market backdrop

Headwind. The market turned on AI spending this week. Alphabet had its worst day ever (−12.6%) on a search miss and cash burn, Amazon's $77B quarterly capex drove free cash flow to −$42B, and Intel's guide sank it 28.6% Friday. Add a Fed that held but leans toward a December hike, 3.6% PCE inflation, a 10-year near 4.9%, Brent near $115 and a record $6.3B crypto hack. The offset: capex budgets were held, not cut, and Vertiv, KLA and SK hynix posted blowout quarters.

This week in review

Rules	Mon Nov 2 through Thu Nov 5 are clear (Tuesday is Election Day). Fri Nov 6 is out: jobs report (Rule 3) and Friday (Rule 2). This week's reporters (AEHR, DOCN, CRCL, COHR, ARM, QCOM, AKAM, IONQ, AAOI, IREN, VST): no new options held into their reports. SKHY + AVGO entry check: Mon 7:40 AM PT.
AI spend	Alphabet fell 12.6% Thu, its worst day ever (~$500B), on a search miss and negative free cash flow (CNBC, Fox Business). Amazon missed on sales and EPS; AWS grew 39% but capex hit $77.3B (CNBC). Microsoft beat with Azure +48% but trimmed capex to $170B on chip-supply delays. Friday the Nasdaq closed −2.86% and the S&P 500 −1.82%; INTC −28.6%.
Results	VRT +16% Wed: sales +61%, orders +100%+, 2026 raised to $7.15 EPS. KLAC beat and guided $4.5–4.9B; sees 2027 WFE above $200B. INTC beat but guided Q4 to $0.25 EPS on a PC slowdown; −28.6% Fri, worst day since 1974. COIN revenue $1.20B missed. SKHY +11% in Seoul Wed after its record quarter.
Fed and data	Fed held at 3.75–4.00% Wed, 10–2 (Cook and Hammack wanted a hike). Warsh gave no guidance; December hike odds rose to ~83% (CNBC). Q3 GDP +3.4% beat; September PCE 3.6% y/y, core 3.1% (CNBC).
Your lists	Updated Oct 30 in your broker's order. Top 5: SKHY, INTC, AVGO, AMZN, SPCX (TER and GLW moved to the Portfolio). 2026 Portfolio now starts with MRVL and adds GOOGL and IONQ. 15–50% Dip adds HPE, FTNT and NOW. LRCX is off. 39 names.
Software	NOW fell 27% Thu (record) on weaker cRPO guidance despite a beat and AI contract value up 65% (CNBC). FTNT fell ~21–25% on a gross-margin miss despite raising billings guidance again (Seeking Alpha). AI-disruption fears are hitting software.
Deals and crypto	MRVL is in advanced talks to buy Lumentum in an all-stock deal (Bloomberg); MRVL fell 11%+. Binance lost a record $6.3B to a hack (Bloomberg); bitcoin fell under $77K and Circle froze $800M of USDC tied to it (CNBC).

Market themes that can move your stocks

AI spending under scrutiny

The market now rewards companies that show a return on AI spending and punishes cash burn. Alphabet had its worst day ever, Amazon's free cash flow is −$42.4B over 12 months, and Intel's weak guide hit the whole chip group Friday. But budgets were held (Amazon $220B, Alphabet $195–205B) or trimmed only for supply (Microsoft $170B), so suppliers' orders are still intact: Vertiv's orders doubled and KLA raised its outlook.

Most exposed: NVDA, AVGO, MRVL, CRDO, CIEN, COHR, GLW, NOK, AAOI, VRT, AMZN, ORCL, CRWV, NBIS

Rates and the Fed

The Fed held Oct 28 but two officials wanted a hike, and December hike odds rose to ~83% (CNBC). September PCE ran 3.6% with core at 3.1%, and Q3 GDP grew 3.4%. October CPI (Tue Nov 10) is the next big test. The 10-year near 4.9% keeps pressure on high-multiple names.

Most exposed: All 36, most of all IONQ, CRWV, NBIS, IREN, AAOI, CBRS, AEHR, NOW

Memory and chip equipment

SK hynix's record quarter (80% operating margin) and KLA's outlook (2027 wafer-equipment spending above $200B) show the supply chain is still booming, even as memory costs squeeze PCs (Intel) and handsets. Applied Materials reports Nov 12; Aehr reports Nov 2.

Most exposed: SKHY, TER, AEHR, AMAT, KLAC, INTC, QCOM

Optics consolidation

Marvell is in advanced talks to buy Lumentum, whose CEO says optical parts are sold out into early 2029 (Bloomberg). A deal would reshape the optics group; Coherent reports Wed Nov 4 and AAOI Thu Nov 5.

Most exposed: MRVL, COHR, AAOI, CIEN, CRDO, GLW, NOK, AVGO

Crypto shock

Binance's $6.3B hack (Oct 29), attributed to North Korea's TraderTraitor, pushed bitcoin under $77K. Binance says it will cover losses; about $3B was frozen, including $800M of USDC by Circle (Bloomberg, CNBC). Coinbase also missed on revenue.

Most exposed: COIN, HOOD, CRCL, IREN

Oil

Brent settled at $114.88 Thursday, easing on reports of renewed U.S.–Iran talks, with Houthi and post-election military risks still in play (CNBC). Higher oil feeds inflation and keeps the Fed hawkish.

Most exposed: VST, BE, broad market

Event risk ahead

Midterm elections Tue Nov 3; jobs report Fri Nov 6; CPI Tue Nov 10; Nvidia earnings Nov 17 (the biggest single read-through for the AI names); Nvidia GTC DC and AWS re:Invent Nov 30–Dec 4.

Most exposed: All 36

Wall Street price targets

Consensus = Nasdaq analyst consensus (average, low–high, buy/hold/sell count). Named targets are the most recent ones reported by your outlets (CNBC, Seeking Alpha; "via TipRanks" = headline on CNBC's quote page). Bold = JPMorgan, BofA, Morgan Stanley, Goldman Sachs, Oppenheimer, Mizuho. Dates and sources are on each stock page. Many targets were set before October's selloff, so the upside looks large; watch for cuts after earnings.

Options IV check: are the options you're allowed to buy cheap?

For each name, I took the expiry your rules allow (7–60 DTE from Mon Nov 2, ending before the next report) closest to 30 days. Its at-the-money implied volatility (IV) is compared with how much the stock has actually moved over the last 20 trading days (HV).

Cheap: IV below actual movement (ratio under 1.0); the better time to buy. Normal: ratio 1.0–1.5. Expensive: ratio 1.5 or more; you pay up and need a bigger move. after earn. = every allowed expiry runs into earnings, so no new options yet (Rule 3); the verdict and IV marked * are estimated without the earnings move, from two expiries after the report (term structure), so you know where each name stands once it has reported.

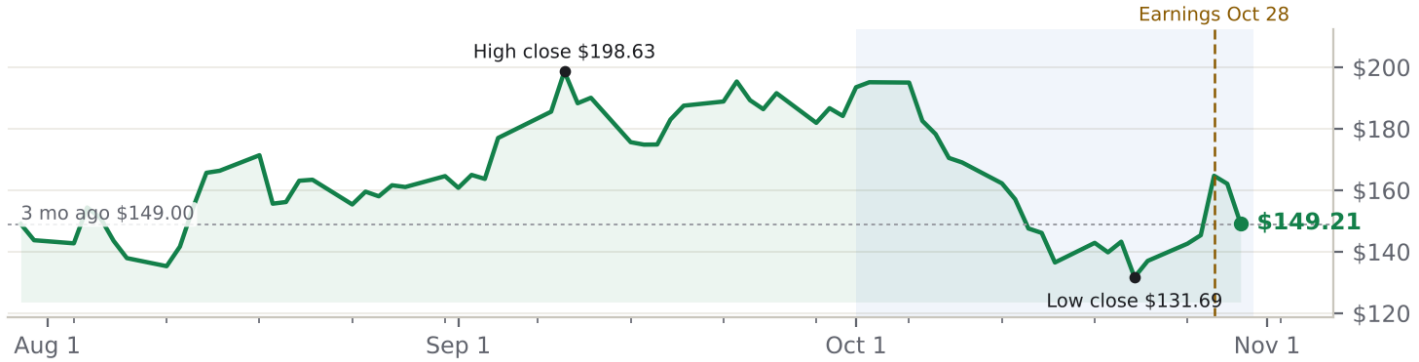

Source: Nasdaq delayed option quotes at Friday Oct 30's close (mid of bid/ask), IV solved with Black-Scholes; HV from official closes. This compares IV with actual movement, not a true IV rank, because I don't have a verified year of IV history. Earnings move = straddle price on the first expiry after the report. Quotes change daily; check live before trading.

NEXT EARNINGS	Not set · last reported Wed Oct 28
OPTIONS WINDOW	Already reported Wed Oct 28; next date not set yet. A 7–60 DTE option bought now is not expected to run into a report.
IV CHECK	Cheap · IV 68% vs 82% actual 20-day movement (ratio 0.83) on the Dec 4 expiry, 32 DTE. Actual movement includes the Oct 28 earnings move, so "cheap" may be overstated. Wide bid/ask at the last close; check live quotes.
LATEST RESULTS	Q3 (Oct 28 Seoul, Tue evening US): record revenue ₩104.6T (+328% y/y, the first quarter above ₩100T); operating profit ₩83.3T (+632%, 80% margin), above the ~₩77T consensus; net profit ₩39.8T. Shares rose ~11% in Seoul and 13%+ in New York on Wed Oct 28 (CNBC), then gave back gains in Friday's chip selloff.
GUIDANCE	No formal guidance. HBM4 shipments began in earnest in Q3 and should pass HBM3E in shipments and revenue in Q4. Long-term deals with 14 customers cover over half of 2027–28 capacity; it sees demand above supply through 2030.
CAPEX & INVESTMENT	M15X ramps to full capacity by year-end; investment rises 'significantly' next year as Yongin phase 1 starts full operation.
CURRENT PARTNERSHIPS	• ~₩100T of 2026 shareholder returns: ₩30T+ dividends, ₩60T+ buybacks • Q3 dividend ₩20,000/share (half special, from Kioxia gains) + ₩20T buyback • DRAM supply talks with Alibaba and Tencent (report, Oct 27) • Solidigm: $45B U.S. plant talks (report)
CATALYSTS	• Reported Oct 27 (US time); next date not set • Nvidia AI Day Seoul Nov 9–10; Nvidia earnings Nov 17 • Your planned Mon Nov 2 entry with AVGO
MARKET EVENTS	Memory pricing, Korean won and the Kospi; China capacity (CXMT) and US approvals for its China fabs.
RISKS	Memory-cycle fears; net profit fell 58% q/q on non-operating losses; 27% off its high.
WALL STREET TARGETS	No Nasdaq consensus yet (recent U.S. listing). BofA Buy $250 (Aug, Seeking Alpha) · Barclays Overweight $330 (Jul 14, CNBC) · Cantor Fitzgerald Overweight $300 (Aug 4, CNBC)

IV CHECK	Cheap · IV 59% vs 127% actual 20-day movement (ratio 0.46) on the Dec 4 expiry, 32 DTE. Actual movement includes the Oct 29 earnings move, so "cheap" may be overstated.
LATEST RESULTS	Q3 (Oct 29): revenue $16.51B, up 21%, in line with $16.50B expected; adjusted EPS $0.52 vs $0.40. Data-center and AI segment had its fastest growth in 15 years. The stock fell 28.6% Friday, its worst day since 1974 (CNBC).
GUIDANCE	Q4 revenue $15–16B and adjusted EPS $0.25, below estimates. CFO Zinsner: 'We see the PC slowdown continuing at least through the first half of next year' (memory costs). 18A ramp continues; 14A customer decisions expected into 1H 2027.
CAPEX & INVESTMENT	Arizona fab tools being installed (Wedbush says this supports revenue growth).
CURRENT PARTNERSHIPS	• Applied Materials collaboration • Musk's Terafab project • Agentic AI is lifting CPU demand (Mizuho)
CATALYSTS	• Reported Oct 29; next report late January • News of foundry customer wins • Analyst target changes after the guide miss
MARKET EVENTS	Memory shortage limits PC builds; the US government's stake lost ~$12B in value Friday (CNBC).
RISKS	PC slowdown into 1H 2027; foundry customer timing; 55% off its high after Friday.

NEXT EARNINGS	Thu Dec 10 · time not announced · in 38 days
CONSENSUS EPS	$3.45 vs $1.61 a year ago · 10 analysts
OPTIONS WINDOW	Reports Thu Dec 10, 38 days out. Friday expiries that are ≥7 DTE and still before the report: Nov 13, Nov 20, Nov 27, Dec 4. Anything later is held into earnings (Rules 3 and 4).
IV CHECK	Cheap · IV 43% vs 46% actual 20-day movement (ratio 0.94) on the Dec 4 expiry, 32 DTE.
LATEST RESULTS	Fiscal Q3 (reported Sep 2): revenue $29.6B, up 86%; adjusted EPS $3.32 vs $3.24 expected; AI chip revenue $16.7B, up 221%.
GUIDANCE	Fiscal Q4 revenue $34.8B (+93%), slightly under the $35.03B consensus; AI chip revenue $21.7B. Fiscal 2026 AI revenue raised to $58B (from $56B). Outlines $115B of AI chip revenue in fiscal 2027 and $230B in 2028.
CAPEX & INVESTMENT	Its own capex is small. Its growth depends on customers' AI budgets, and it is now helping fund one: talks on a $50B+ financing deal for OpenAI's custom chips.
CURRENT PARTNERSHIPS	• OpenAI and Anthropic custom chips (concentration flagged by analysts) • Google TPU designs • NTT DOCOMO 10-year VMware cloud deal (Oct 20)
CATALYSTS	• Earnings Thu Dec 10 • Hyperscaler capex held or trimmed (Amazon $220B, Alphabet $195–205B, Microsoft $170B), but Alphabet's and Amazon's cash burn sparked an AI-spending selloff Oct 29–30 • Progress on the OpenAI financing deal • Nvidia earnings Nov 17 and GTC DC (Nov 30–Dec 3)
MARKET EVENTS	CEO Hock Tan says capital, not demand, is now the biggest limit on AI. Higher rates and AI-credit stress hit names tied to OpenAI and Anthropic financing. It names wafers, substrates, HBM memory and power as supply bottlenecks.
RISKS	Customer concentration in OpenAI and Anthropic; off-balance-sheet financing exposure; Q4 guide only in line.
WALL STREET TARGETS	Consensus $524 (+60.6% vs close) · range $400–$630 · 29 buy / 1 hold / 0 sell (Nasdaq) JPMorgan Overweight $580 (Jun, CNBC) · Morgan Stanley Overweight $502 (Jul 14, CNBC) · Bernstein Outperform $575 (Sep 22, CNBC)

NEXT EARNINGS	Not set · last reported Thu Oct 29
OPTIONS WINDOW	Already reported Thu Oct 29; next date not set yet. A 7–60 DTE option bought now is not expected to run into a report.
IV CHECK	Cheap · IV 32% vs 36% actual 20-day movement (ratio 0.89) on the Dec 4 expiry, 32 DTE. Actual movement includes the Oct 29 earnings move, so "cheap" may be overstated.
LATEST RESULTS	Q3 (Oct 29): sales $201.9B, up 12%, just under the $202.3B consensus; EPS $1.89 vs $1.96 expected. Record 13.9% operating margin ($28.1B). AWS revenue $46.0B, up 39% (faster than Q2's 37%); AWS operating income $17.8B, up 55%.
GUIDANCE	2026 capex held at about $220B. Jassy says AWS can grow above 40% in both 2027 and 2028. Morgan Stanley's Nowak called it mostly an expectations miss (CNBC).
CAPEX & INVESTMENT	Q3 capex $77.3B vs $58.7B expected (FactSet) and $35.1B a year ago; trailing 12-month free cash flow −$42.4B. That cash burn drove the selloff and the AI-spending worries.
CURRENT PARTNERSHIPS	• Anthropic (AWS) • 3M expanded data-center products relationship (Oct 19)
CATALYSTS	• Reported Oct 29; next report late January (date not set) • Analysts say buy the dip after the miss (CNBC, Oct 30) • AWS re:Invent Nov 30–Dec 4 • Holiday season
MARKET EVENTS	The week's AI-spending scare: Alphabet's record one-day drop and Amazon's cash burn pushed investors toward companies that show returns on AI spending. Its capex is revenue for NVDA, AVGO, MRVL, CRDO, VRT and the optics names.
RISKS	Capex outrunning cash flow; retail growth only 12%; AI agents shopping on rival platforms.

NEXT EARNINGS	Not set · last reported Thu Oct 22
OPTIONS WINDOW	Already reported Thu Oct 22; next date not set yet. A 7–60 DTE option bought now is not expected to run into a report.
IV CHECK	Cheap · IV 83% vs 92% actual 20-day movement (ratio 0.90) on the Dec 4 expiry, 32 DTE. Actual movement includes the Oct 22 earnings move, so "cheap" may be overstated.
LATEST RESULTS	Q3 (Oct 22): revenue $1.24B, $170M above estimates; non-GAAP EPS $0.94, $0.27 above. Stock still fell 11% on cash outflows and expansion costs.
GUIDANCE	2026 revenue $4.4–4.6B; non-GAAP EPS outlook raised to $3.10–3.40.
CAPEX & INVESTMENT	Factory capacity expansion (announced Sep 29). Spending on that expansion is why cash flow disappointed in Q3.
CURRENT PARTNERSHIPS	• Oracle data-center power (a reported force-majeure notice on one Oracle site hit the stock Sep 24) • Joined the S&P 500 in September
CATALYSTS	• The next earnings date isn't set (it just reported) • New hyperscaler power contracts • Trump's call (Oct 21) for data centers to supply their own electricity: a tailwind for on-site power
MARKET EVENTS	AI-power demand, utility grid limits and natural-gas prices (fuel). Rate-sensitive: the Fed held Oct 28 but December hike odds are ~83% (CNBC).
RISKS	Cash burn during expansion; execution on Oracle projects; valuation (the stock is 44% off its high after the report).
